

This is a historical survey map of a river valley, likely the Mississippi River. The map is oriented with the river flowing from the top right towards the bottom left. Key locations and features include:

- Mathew Allen Cord Wood Lot: A large parcel in the center, with a date of 1720.
- Teley Sloum: A parcel below Mathew Allen's, with a date of 1720.
- Nichelle Barville: A parcel on the left side, with a date of 1720.
- Abraham Tucker: A parcel on the right side, with a date of 1720.
- St. Louis: A label near the top right, indicating the location of the city.
- Mississippi River: The river is depicted with multiple lines representing its course and width.
- Handwritten Annotations: The map is heavily annotated with handwritten text, including names, dates, and measurements.

The map is a detailed survey of land parcels, showing the river's course and the surrounding land. The parcels are labeled with names and dates, and the river is depicted with multiple lines representing its course and width. The overall style is that of a hand-drawn survey map from the 18th or 19th century.
